

The removal of the State Prison to a locality where it can be made partially, if not wholly, self sustaining, is a question which concerns every taxpayer in the State of Nevada. At present the labor of the prisoners is a loss to the State. It can only be utilized in the manufacture of boots and shoes, and that business as conducted at the Prison is not profitable. It is therefore the duty of the Legislature to devise remedial legislation, if that is possible, which will relieve the people from a part of the burden of maintaining the Prison, and all of the expense of furnishing employment for the prisoners. As it now is it incurs extra expense on the State to have a prisoner employed in the Prison work and shoe shop, and the more work the prisoner does the more expensive he is to the taxpayers.

It is estimated that necessary repairs at the prison to make the building habitable will involve an outlay of from $8,000 to $10,000. The cost of removing the Prison to the Truckee river will be about $20,000, as Prison labor can be utilized to a considerable extent in removing the material. Washoe county proposes to pay half that amount, so that the State would not have to expend only a few thousand dollars more than the cost of putting the Prison where it is now situated.

It is believed that the Prison, if removed, can be made self-sustaining at very nearly so, and save the people about $10,000 a year. That of itself ought to be a sufficient inducement for removing it from its present locality, and it will be if the interests of the public, not of a locality, are considered by the Legislature.

THE NIAGARA CANAL SCHEME.

The debates on the proposition to have the United States Government guarantee one hundred millions of Niagara Canal bonds and become a partner in a private corporation, shows it to be one of the most gigantic schemes of the century. John Sherman, the agent of the gold men, who want government bonds issued to buy gold for export to Europe, has been engineering the scheme in the Senate. Teller and Bruce had him on the rack last week and placed the great golding in an unenviable position. I was conclusively shown that the scheme as engineered by Sherman was to have the United States build the canal for a private corporation, guaranteeing it with its credit.

"No one will dispute the importance of this canal as a great international enterprise; no one will dispute that it is in the interest of the United States to have it constructed; and no one will deny that in view of the interests of the government involved, both political and commercial, it should assist the project of some fair and business-like basis. But the job involved in the Pacific railroad legislation of 1861-65 sinks into insignificance as compared with the proposition to endorse the bonds of this canal company without any adequate guarantee on the part of the company, or of the governments of the countries in which the canal is to be constructed. The proposition should not be hastily considered. It is a great and simple, and the great apologist for the gold trust and the money power on the floor of the Senate knows it."

NO CHANGE IN COUNTY BOUNDARIES.

The bill to annex the southern part of Washoe valley to Ormsby county was shelved in the Assembly yesterday. A majority of the members have made up their minds to make no change in the map of Nevada at this session. The people did not demand it during the campaign, in fact it was not mentioned in the State or county platforms of any party, and as it is purely a local question, the members wisely concluded to let it alone. There is no reason why the people of Churchill county, for instance, who are apparently well satisfied with their county government, should be annexed to Lyon or Esmeralda by the votes of representatives from Lincoln, White Pine and Eureka, who can have no special interest in the local affairs of Churchill.

The Oregon Legislature adjourned Saturday night. It broke the record on appropriation. The appropriation bill aggregated $2,000,000. Besides this $20,000,000 was appropriated for the World's Fair; jute plant for the penitentiary, $100,000; Asylum for Eastern Oregon, $100,000; militia, $100,000; State University, $300,000; Agricultural College, $20,000; Western Normal School, $24,000; artesian wells, $23,000. An act exempting mortgages from taxation was passed.

SENATOR STEWART desires to make the Nicaragua canal a National affair in stead of a bond grabbing scheme. His amendment to the bill places the building of the canal under Government supervision and provides that Government money shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War. He does not intend to have the public money used by a private corporation to enrich its members.

GOV. LEWELLING'S OPINION

North Dakota Succeeds in Electing a Senator.

SOLDIERS WANTED FOR HAWAII

Soldiers for Hawaii.
New York, Feb. 20.—A Herald's Washington special says that in anticipating the realization of the Hawaiian annexation treaty by both the United States Senate and the Provisional Government of Hawaii, the military and naval authorities are discussing what should be done for the preservation of peace on the islands, pending the establishment of a permanent government. It is realized that from the heterogeneous character of the population of the islands and the general tendency of the native element to revolution that to peacefully maintain American sovereignty over the islands there must be a proper display of military force from this time until that of annexation becomes an established fact. In this connection the advisability of sending troops of the regular army to the islands is being informally and seriously discussed by many of the army officers. The navy people, as a rule, believe that sailors and marines should be utilized for the purpose, but are forced to admit that by reason of the limited number of naval vessels at hand it might be advisable to send several battalions of regular army troops to remain at Honolulu until some of the new vessels can be sent from the Coast. Under the permanent form of government to be established by legislation it is suggested that there should be a standing army organized from the inhabitants of the islands, and a number of American officers it has been suggested, should be detailed to perfect the organization, and when the United States establishes a proposed coal station in Pearl Harbor there should be an American garrison to defend the entrance to the harbor.

Congressional

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Senator Gorman, in some remarks which he made in the Senate today in opposition to the appropriation for public buildings, spoke of the serious and alarming condition which confronted the country and expressed the belief that only the borders of the trouble have been touched and that extraordinary action will have to be taken by the Treasury Department or else Congress will have to meet before next July to meet the situation. His warning did not prevent the Senate from agreeing to all amendments offered making appropriations for increases in the limit of cost of public buildings over the year and day vote was taken and showed all the Republican Senators except Sherman in the affirmative and all Democratic Senators except Vest in the negative. The House bill to provide for the publication of the eleventh census passed.

Handbrough presented concurrent resolutions from the legislature of North Dakota for a constitutional amendment to have United States Senators elected by the people.

Quay moved amendments, which were agreed to, fixing the limit of the cost of the public building at San Francisco at $3,000,000, at Portland, Ore., at $1,000,000. The executive session adjourned.

HOUSE

In the House the naval and agricultural appropriation bills were called up under a suspension of the rules and passed and the House adjourned.

North Dakota Elects a Senator.
Bismarck, N. D., Feb. 20.—W. N. Roach was elected Senator by a combination of Democrats and Independents aided by some Republicans. Roach has been a resident of Dakota for the past twelve years, coming from the District of Columbia. He has stood for his party as a candidate for Governor on two different occasions. He is a large wheat grower and was naturally expected to draw the farmers' vote from the Independent ranks.

Dempsy Again Arrested.

Pittsburg, Feb. 20.—Hugh Dempsy, District Master Workman of the Knights of Labor who was recently convicted of complicity in the Homestead poisoning, was arrested again this evening and lodged in jail on a charge of felonious assault and battery.

There is a good deal of mystery surrounding the arrest and all parties concerned refuse to talk.

Sunday Closing.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The World's Fair Committee of the House today further discussed several propositions pending relative to the Sunday opening of the Exposition, but no conclusion was reached and the committee adjourned to no fixed day. A member of the committee said after the meeting that he thought it safe to say that no action on the proposition would be taken this session.

The Walker Failure.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 20.—Governor McKinley still remains in Cleveland awaiting developments of the Walker failure at Youngstown. The liabilities of the Governor now amount to more than $80,000.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 20.—General G. T. Beauregard died at his residence in this city at 10:30 to-night.

What Gov. Lewelling Says.

TOPKA, Feb. 20.—Governor Lewelling this afternoon gave the Associated Press an official statement in writing in regard to the late unpleasantness. He says the Republicans boast of having carried the fight. The fact is that the Populists never lost sight of the central idea in the contest, the preservation of the Populist House. It was to destroy this House that the Republicans made their fight and failed. Had they succeeded it would have thwarted all reform legislation. They know that the laws passed by it are valid, and that to declare otherwise the Supreme Court would have to revise all respectable precedents at partisan demand and face a wave of public indignation unparalleled since the notorious Judge Trevelyan was followed to the scaffold by an outraged people who exulted at his just but shocking execution. Corporate greed determined to prevent the enactment of any reform measures by the Populists.

The Governor then goes on to enumerate the Acts of the Republican House, intended to extinguish the House of the Populists, beginning with the attempted arrest of its chief clerk and to be followed by the arrest of enough Populist members to break the quorum. This, he adds, did not succeed, and though the Republicans succeeded by a compromise in driving the Populists from the hall, their organization is still intact. Even this was only brought about through the disloyalty of the State militia and its county sheriff. He declares the militia had been recruited and doctored up to this end for two years. Unmasking Republican treason, perjury and lawlessness compensates the Populists for all indignities suffered, however.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 20.—The forecast for Nevada is fair weather and stationary temperature.

NYE AND BURBANK.

The Humorist and Actor on the Stage
Bill Nye has come and gone, and so has his partner Burbank, who is almost as humorous and a much better actor than Nye. The Opera House was crowded with expectant listeners. Every seat was filled. Mr. Burbank opened the "proceedings." He is a fine elocutionist, a good actor, and in fact occupies the greater part of the time. His rendition of Rip Van Winkle was remarkably good, as was also his rendition of a "Tale of Two Cities." Bill Nye's "Life in North Carolina" was his best effort. He is as sober as a church deacon. His expression is serious and like Mark Twain, when he lectured on this Coast a generation ago, there is humor in his drawl. When his subject was of the gravest character some of his hearers would laugh. They went to the Opera House for that purpose and they were determined to carry out their intention. Those people were not disappointed. Others who could not see the point of a joke and could not appreciate humor were.

Dr. W. A. Phillips, while returning from the country yesterday, where he had been to see a patient, met with an accident which resulted in breaking a wheel and otherwise damaging the buggy in which he was riding. The horse became fractious on the bridge and the buggy was crowded against the stone pier by a hay wagon which was going in the opposite direction. The doctor stayed with the horse and succeeded in stopping him opposite Westlake's, and escaped without injury.

Entering Portland Harbor.

This is the time of year when the storm-tossed mariner should never be over confident that he is safely and certainly within Portland harbor. Again and again vessels almost ready to poke their noses past House Island have been driven off the shore by a wintry northeaster, and with rigging food, crew despairing, have been whirled off the coast for days, driven sometimes hundreds of miles away. Even a land lubber can realize how men would feel under these conditions after they had drawn almost near enough to the home fireside to feel its warmth. It was only a little while ago that a Portland captain, returning from a long voyage, had worked his vessel well up to the harbor's mouth. Then in his profound relief he resigned the ship into the hands of his men, went below and proceeded to acquire unto himself a load that sagged that part of the ship mightily. So when that northeaster came down past old Seguin the captain didn't know a gale from a tune on a jews-harp. The nose of the plunging ship worked about slowly, but steadily, and in 15 minutes the vessel was fitting away to the south, squarely away from home and comfort. The captain never sobered off so quickly in all his life, but it was no use; he was in for it. For nine days they struggled with a raging sea, hundreds of miles off the coast, with iced rigging stiff as iron, and suffering everything but death. When the storm abated, and the captain finally toiled weakly into Portland harbor, he was sober—there's not the least doubt about that.—Lewiston Journal.

How He Formed His Opinion.

Jim Thornton, who just now occupies a position of extreme prominence in the Tenderloin precinct, hasn't a very high opinion of human intelligence as displayed in the swell cafes. He tells this story to show that his opinion in this respect is correct:

During the recent excitement about the nearness of Mars to the earth he was sitting in the rear room of a Broadway cafe flat broke, but very thirsty. He had nothing to do, so he sat down and wrote a sonnet, which he called "My Sweetheart's the Man in the Moon."

When he finished it he offered it to the bartender for a couple of drinks and a dollar. The bartender laughed at him, and Jim walked away with his shirt and the song. Pretty nearly every one knows the song now, and the royalty from it allows Jim to spend over $50 a week in the cafes all over town.—New York Journal.

Bill Nye's Testimonial.

Dr. C. E. Hale, St. Paul: DEAR SIR:—Before going to your office I made suitable provisions for my family, and wringing the hands of those I love, I paid my taxes and settled my earthly affairs. I expected to suffer the tortures of the Inquisition, for my molars are the most sensitive part of my anatomy, and you will remember that I inquired somewhat minutely as to where dentists bury their dead, and what ratio of the condemned really survive; but I found your new method makes about as pleasant to have a tooth filled as to have a photograph taken, and puts a new phase on the whole business. Very truly yours, BILL NYE.

Honesty is the Best Policy.

HOW MANY deaths have been the result of treating with unscrupulous demagogues. How many deaths have been caused by the use of poison (morphine, acconite, strychnine, belladonna, etc.) In how many cases has death been hastened by the use of mineral (mercury, iron, zinc, chloral). In how many cases have men and women been ruined for life by the use of the ever ready knife, at the hands of a so-called Specialist. How many people there are who go from doctor to doctor and from hospital to hospital, suffering from a complication of diseases, and being treated for first one thing and then another, and never realizing the least benefit. Never in any case having received anything but a combination of mineral poison, and as a consequence, accelerated misery and distress. To such the discovery of a doctor who understands his or her case, who applies a common sense treatment and relieves the sufferer from pain and distress by Nature's remedies, is like a flash of heavenly light from a dark and overcast sky.

Allan claimed that it was possible to get through in forty days, although possibly considerable local legislation would be left on the files. Harris favored the resolution as also did Russell. Resolution lost.

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this caucus that the Legislature adjourn if possible on the fortieth day of the session, but in the event that important legislation still remains at that time on the files, unacted on, the Legislature shall remain in session until such bills are disposed of, when it shall adjourn sine die."

Resolved further, That the Act limiting the session of the Legislature to 40 days be immediately repealed.

Commissioners Proceedings.
The Board of County Commissioners met yesterday for the purpose of transacting Reno Township business; present, Chairman Alt, Commissioner McLaughlin, O. Evans, County Clerk, and B. F. Corlier, District Attorney, Commissioner Crosby being absent.

On motion of W. P. McLaughlin it was ordered that B. E. Leste be notified to connect his closest, sinks, etc., with the town sewer.
The sum of $250 was ordered transferred from the Incorporation Fund and placed to the credit of the Park Fund, for the benefit and improvement of the public parks of Reno.

Upon petition of O. J. Brookins for the building of a sidewalk on Commercial Row between the Palace Hotel and the former's place of business, it is ordered that the Constable of Reno notify the owners of the property in front of which the proposed walk is to be laid. Said sidewalk is to be constructed of two-inch plank and twelve feet wide, and laid on 4 x 6 stringers, laid thirty inches from center to center, and placed on the grade established by law.

It was ordered that the owners of property on Center street, on the west side north of Third street, be not tied to build sidewalks in front of their premises.
It was ordered that notice be served upon W. J. Luke that he is keeping hog within the town limits contrary to an ordinance prohibiting the same and requesting him to remove them.

H. P. Brown was employed to take charge of the sewers within the town, at a salary of $85 per month.
Petitions were presented for the erection of electric lights on the corner of Walnut and Nevada streets, one on the corner of Fifth and West streets, and one on the corner of Second and Chestnut streets.

It was ordered that action on the petitions be deferred until such time as the Light Company furnishes better service. There being no further business the Board adjourned to March 6, 1893.

Remove Them All.
The Resolutes have instructed their representatives to make an effort to secure the removal of the prison to the riverbed barg, guaranteeing to pay half the expense. While about it why not secure the removal of the State Capitol, Government Building and U. S. Mint—Carson Tribune.

SCAB IN SHEEP

Why the Bill to Control It Should Become a Law.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—There is a bill now before the Legislature which has not, it seems to me, received that attention which its merit deserves. I refer to the measure having for its object the stamping out of that scourge,

SCAB IN SHEEP.

The Act concerns the public at large as well as those engaged in the sheep business, although of course the latter are interested to the greatest extent. That such a law has not been placed on the Statute book long ago is now a matter which is almost inexplicable to me and argues great shortsightedness on the part of the sheep men of this State. The losses they are sustained by the havoc wrought in their wool crops in the last twenty years would aggregate such a prodigious sum as would stagger any one not familiar with the facts and would simply not be believed. Moreover the presence of scab in a band of sheep, especially when it has gained a strong hold upon them, by rendering the animals such horrid and unclean looking objects and their flesh unwholesome food, has created so great a prejudice against mutton in the minds of many individuals that they would rather starve than partake of it. For these reasons the quantity of mutton consumed here is not in anything like proportion to what is used in places where sheep are by law kept strictly clean.

In addition to which considerations I would urge the fact of the extreme misery endured by the poor dumb brutes themselves when suffering from this parasite as being of itself amply sufficient to justify the passage of the bill above mentioned. And it may not be out of place further here to remark that some of those sheep men who have been foremost in clamoring for the passage of the bounty Act with a view to destruction of animals inimical to the sheep that they have unsuspectingly by their carelessness and neglect in failing to adopt vigorous measures to stamp out the scab in the flocks been themselves the most formidable enemy of their very useful and profitable animals when treated with proper care and attention.

NOT A HOPELESS TASK.
Many wool growers have hitherto stoutly resisted the adoption of a scab law, fearing that they would be unable to comply with its requirements, but the fact of the matter is that the eradication of scab is not such a hopeless task as a great many of them think it is, and if only a really thorough-going measure is passed by the Legislature they will be convinced of the worth of this statement ere many years pass over their heads.

THE TROUBLE HENRY FOR.
Heretofore the great difficulty experienced by those who have endeavored to keep their sheep clean has been due to the fact that scab is a most contagious disease, and that they would no sooner succeed at considerable trouble and expense in getting the plague banished from their flocks and ranges than there would be brought bands of scabby sheep to range in their neighborhood spreading the germs of the disease everywhere they went, on brush and bank and rock, thus again getting their clean flocks contaminated and all the good work they had accomplished completely undone. If, however, everybody's sheep and corals and ranges were once perfectly clean, and stringent measures taken to prevent in flocked bands from entering the State we would hear very little more of the ravages of scab, and the vendors of the numerous dips for its prevention and cure would find their occupation gone.

THE DIP CAN BE STAMPED OUT.
I, who have had some considerable experience in the sheep business, extending to a period not a day short of forty years can vouch for the fact that in one place where over half a million sheep were ranged there had not been a single case of scab seen or known, nor a sheep dipped or spotted, in a period of ten years, and if a stringent scab law, similar to what was in operation in the place referred to, were passed and enforced here, I do not see any reason why we should not enjoy the same immunity from that all too prevalent evil. Accordingly I do hope that intelligence and good sense will prevail in the Nevada Legislature and pass the bill.
